

American Reformed Church (americanchurchoc.com) in Orange City, Iowa, is seeking a Director of Youth Ministries who is relational, creative, and visionary, and called by God to nurture middle and high school students into a more vibrant relationship with Jesus Christ. In addition, the director will engage, enlist, and equip other volunteer leaders for youth ministry.

The ideal candidate will exhibit a strong and growing relationship with Jesus Christ and a deep love for middle and high school students. The candidate will demonstrate evidence of strong communication skills, organizational aptitude, teaching experience, and the ability to recruit, train, and inspire volunteers. Previous experience in youth ministry or education is required, and a bachelor's degree in biblical and theological studies, youth ministry, Christian education, secondary education, or a related field is preferred.

This is a part-time position of 20 hours per week.

ARC's mission is to be a community that gathers together to be transformed by Jesus to transform the world. We hold to four core values: acceptance, grace, wisdom, and love. We engage our mission and values through five key practices: we welcome, worship, know, serve, and share.

If you feel led to apply, send a letter of interest and resume to Pastors Elizabeth and Michael Hardeman at arcocpastors@gmail.com. The application process will remain open until the position is filled, but candidates are strongly encouraged to submit materials before March 31, 2020.
